To Whom It May Concern:

On May 14, 2012, The Right Group sent in filing papers to establish a political action committee with the Federal Election Committee. Inadvertently, documentation was submitted along with these forms indicating that the Right Group intended to make independent expenditures, prohibiting contributions to federal candidates or committees. This was not our intent. And we had not realized we had done so. Because of this, we were unable to timely file our July 15, 2012 report and attempted to make a contribution to Mitt Romney for President, our check being returned to us by the Romney Campaign, which informed us of our status as an independent expenditure committee.

We request to amend our filing to show that the Right Group wishes to be recognized as a non-connected PAC, with the ability to contribute to committees or federal candidates under the appropriate laws.

We apologize for any issues this has caused.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very Truly Yours,

Michael W. Scaljon, Esq.
Attorney for The Right Group
